In Re: Fred and Nina Emberton
Case No. ~~95-64~~ Tompkinsville Call Facilities
95-1104

Dear Sirs:

On August 24, 1995, my clients received the enclosed notice from W. Brent Rice, counsel for Horizon Cellular Telephone, concerning the construction of a new tower on land adjacent to the Embertons located in Monroe County, Kentucky.

Although the letter is vague in its contents, we assume that it was sent to the Embertons merely because they own property within a 500 foot radius of the proposed tower. We interpret the letter, and the enclosed map, to mean that no interference, of any kind, is contemplated on the land of the Embertons; that no trees or growth of any kind on the Emberton property will be disturbed, and that there will be no construction of any kind on the Emberton property, including any guidelines to support the tower.

If my interpretations are correct, please advise. If my interpretations of the notice are incorrect and there is to be any encroachment upon the Embertons, or any portion of the Emberton's property is to be utilized in the construction or maintenance of the tower, or in any way encumbered, then we object unless the Embertons are justly compensated for any such interruption of the use of their property.

Please respond at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,

Clay Hundley, Jr.
